Meet the G-I-N & JBI 2019 Scientific Committee

As Chair of the Scientific Committee for the joint Guidelines International Network and Joanna Briggs Institute Conference in Adelaide this year, I want to introduce you to the members of Scientific Committee, who are busy planning challenging plenary sessions and new opportunities for delegates to present their research. It won't seem long before we can look forward to meeting you on October 30th in Adelaide, which has world class conference facilities and is a gateway to Southeast and Central Australia.

Professor Ian Olver

Scientific Committee Chair

Partnership & Exhibition

Why sponsor and/or exhibit at the G-I-N & JBI Conference 2019

G-I-N & JBI Conference 2019 is an exciting opportunity for all those who work with guidelines in health and social care to come together; from development and methodology through to implementation and evaluation.

- Provide an excellent opportunity to promote your name and brand and maintain a high profile before, during and after the conference.
- Align your corporate responsibility programme with the goals of the conference.
- Consolidate corporate relationships and expose your colleagues and organisation to key markets.
- Allow your organisation to demonstrate its commitment to best practices to a highly diverse and representative audience.
- Enable your representatives to interact informally with participants from around the world.
- Expose your organisation to a keenly interested, relevant and above all, influential audience in an educational environment away from everyday distractions.

A wide variety of sponsorship opportunities have been designed for the G-I-N & JBI joint Conference. Each package contains benefits that will ensure your organisation receives maximum exposure.

The Sponsorship & Exhibition Prospectus will be available soon on the conference website.
